EDMONTON LIKE SUNNY SOUTH

THIS ISN'T CALIFORNIA folks, but just good old Edmonton in November. Record high temperatures of last several days have brought on belated attacks of spring fever and dog days. But one pretty little miss, Rita Hayworth of 10735-111 street, know just what to do about it. She donned bathing suit and reclined on banks of North Saskatchewan in sunshine. She wasn't worried about being caught out by unpredictable weather. She knew sun was going to a lay out. She works in weather office here. —Photo by Black.

Tropic Air Still Here But Cool Days Ahead

Six all-time records have been shattered and another is expected to be broken today as Edmonton's Hollywood weather spell goes into its second week. But today's temperature is expected to be the last of the record breakers. Temperatures are expected to let down to something more normal during this week.

U.S.-CANADA PIPELINE The tropical breeze which has wafted over Edmonton for the past week have been piped in here direct from warm waters of the Pacific off southern California, the weathermen explain. The 2,000-mile journey was made possible by a freak combination of high and low pressure zones which funnelled in the tropic air while holding off the polar cold. More records have fallen in the past week than in all the rest of the year. Here is the history of the last wave:

RECORDS TUMBLE The first record fell last Monday as a temperature of 63° beating the 1903 record of 62°. Temperature was reached two days later on Wednesday with a summer-like 71 which beat the 1903 record of 68. The following four days all set records with temperatures of 66° for Thursday, 65 Friday, 63 Saturday and 61 Sunday. Today's prediction is for 60, a scant one degree above the 1903 record. Previous records this year were set April 30 with 75 and June 4 with 86.

Henderson Cleared In Slaying

Man in Auto Camp At Same Time Arrested in Detroit

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—(CP)—Wayne County police today charged William L. Wallace, a Canadian with the murder last August of Yvonne Levesque, Edmonton waitress, in a Calgary auto camp.

Police said Wallace, who was married last week in his apartment after Mrs. Wilhelmina Wallace, whom he married last year in Vancouver, reported to police he tried to beat her up.

Mrs. Wallace told police then that Wallace committed the murder last fall when the couple was staying at the Calgary auto camp. They were in a cabin near the use where the wife, named Wallace, was found dead.

ADmits KILLING Police said that Wallace, who has been deported to Canada four times from the United States, admitted the murder.

A native of Pincher Creek, Alta., she had worked as a waitress in an Edmonton coffee shop until a few weeks before the slaying. When she left, she said she planned to be married.

SEARCHED FOR LOVER The night of her death, Henderson asked the manager of the auto camp to call an ambulance and police as the woman had been injured. When police arrived they found Henderson, bleeding over his forehead, giving artificial respiration.

His wife was nude and badly bruised. One police constable attempted to revive the woman while the other went to call help.

Police said Henderson stepped out of the cabin and vanished. Later, police learned Henderson had borrowed a friend's automobile. The car was recovered in Winnipeg.

A warrant was issued for Henderson's arrest on a charge of murder. His whereabouts is still unknown.

UNAWARE NAME CLEARED In the past three months he has been variously reported in Saskatoon, Winnipeg, Toronto and the Maritimes.

A mechanical engineering graduate of the University of Saskatchewan, Calgary-based Henderson is probably still unaware of the dramatic clearing of his name. In Calgary Chief Constable S. J. Patterson said no action yet has been taken to quash the warrant for Henderson, a Calgary detective will fly to Detroit to question Henderson's friends.

Records Destroyed After Probe Starts

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—(CP)—F. A. McGregor, resigning combines investigation chief, accused 11 firms of being parties to a combine which "bought to control prices" of flour, rolled oats, millfeeds and coarse grains in every province from 1936 to 1947.

"During many periods," said the controversial report tabled in the commons today by Justice Minister Carson, "agreements to maintain price uniformity have been completely effective."

The 6000-word report that prompted Mr. McGregor's resignation charged that the history of the firms' activities "is a record of a series of agreements which were broken at times, only to be followed by renewals or modifications designed to bring the parties back into an agreement."

THREATENED INDEPENDENTS It charged that 1. "Threats of reprisals" were made to keep small, independent millers "in line" if they did not comply with efforts to "induce them to keep close" to the firms' agreed price levels.

2. Eastern firms kept "a double set of minutes" on meetings, one making "practically no reference to the frequent agreements and understandings on prices," the other disclosing them in "confidential memoranda."

3. Western firms kept only one set of minutes, but the secretary of their Association admitted destroying his copy shortly after the combine's probe started two years ago.

CHARGES WITHHELD The report was submitted to the government Dec. 28, 1946. Mr. Carson said Friday the 11 firms will not be prosecuted.

Mr. McGregor said the firms were members of associates of the Canadian National Millers' Association, which he said had been in one case a Vancouver mill was bought out by five Association members and dissolved.

The report recommends probes for small flour action, noting that the number of such mills has declined from 412 in 1934 to 134 in 1947.

The combine had a common formula for adjusting flour prices to variations in wheat price. Prices were agreed upon for different kinds of packaging, various grades and the different classification of customers.

Association members, said identical bills which were tabled by federal or provincial governments at by other large firms, sometimes one member would refuse to sign to submit the law.

The report took no exception with CHCA's time activities authorized by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and other government agencies, but the large pantries fixed prices by agreement with the government, although "such joint action was neither required nor sanctioned by the Prices Board or any other government agency."

At eastern district meetings of the association, a separate, confidential set of minutes was kept, but no reference to price agreements reached at the meetings.

Police Probing Mystery Death

Elderly Man Found Dead In City Police Lockup

Death of an old man in city police station cell is being investigated today by order of the provincial coroner.

James Vaughan, aged about 70, died in his cell early Sunday.

Preliminary inquest into the man's death will be held today by Dr. M. M. Cantor.

The man had been picked up by city police on a south side street Saturday night in an unconscious condition.

He was taken to University hospital for a medical check and released about 3:15 a.m. Sunday.

Police then charged him with intoxication and took him to Central police station cell.

At 8:45 a.m., the turnkey, making his rounds, reported that the man was still alive. On the next check a half-hour later, he was discovered dead.

Dr. Cantor, on search of the dead man's effects, said evidence on Mr. Vaughan indicated he recently arrived here from Saskatoon.

"We are still in the dark as to what caused death," said Dr. Cantor. "It may have been natural causes, but he was in no position to say definitely."

Insanity Itself Not Legal Defence

Some weeks ago a man carried a gun around his neighborhood in an American city shooting people on sight. But instead of being executed for these murders he was declared insane and was not even brought to trial.

The Canadian Criminal Code does recognize insanity, but only to the extent that it precludes a person knowing right from wrong.

Insanity, by itself should not be a defense. It is only if the insanity precludes a person from knowing what they are doing that there is any legal justification for excusing the act.

The fact that a person is insane is no defence and a person who is clearly insane can be and, so far as that goes, under certain conditions, should be punished.

At one time insanity did not enter the picture at all. In those days, one paid the penalty regardless.

Because of that situation it was possible for a person to undergo a mental lapse during form some sort of insane hatred for the people in the community—but in giving away to his desire to kill those people he knew what he was doing and since he did know, there would seem to be no legal reason why he should which he would have no idea what he was doing. He might recover and discover that without knowing it, he had committed a murder and would as a result be executed.

Like Killing While Asleep

Suppose, you went to sleep, or became unconscious for a time and then discovered when you awoke that you had unknowingly killed someone. It would be a horrible situation to face punishment for something you did not know you had done. Actually, it would be like punishing you for something you did not do, because while your body may have acted, your mind was not aware of what was happening. One hated for understandable reasons, the other because of a mental condition but so long as they each know that they should not kill it is murder if they do so. The insanity has nothing to do with the crime. In this case the

Then take another example. Suppose you suffer from some mental condition which causes

Our laws of insanity need some

Union Wage Demand Seen As Result of Rent Boost

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—(BUP)—Trades and Labor Congress unions are considering asking for higher wages as a result of the government's rent boost action, T.L.C. President Percy Bengough said today.

Bengough's remarks came as he welcomed to Ottawa Gordon Chubb, T.L.C. secretary-treasurer. The T.L.C. president said that the Congress executive could not ask for member unions as individual units, "but they may well consider asking for higher wages as a result of the rent increases."

FOLLOWS DEVALUATION
"This is especially true when you consider this rental decontrol came directly on top of an increased cost-of-living boost from devaluation. This sequence shows no fixed wages or pensions," he added.

"However, the T.L.C. itself has nothing to do with this line of thinking, but must await the action of its individual units," said Bengough.

The T.L.C. president also commented on other subjects affecting Canadian labor. They are: pensions, the new free world labor federation, the U.S. coal strike and Communism in the T.L.C.

"The T.L.C. believes in pensions for the government and NOT by industry," Bengough said.

BLOW AT LABOR
"Industry-sponsored pensions only tended to make labor too static, keeping employed labor in one industry and tended to bar unemployed from new jobs."

Bengough said that if the United States coal strike continued too long, it would give great impetus

By KIRTLAND I. KING
CLAYVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 7.—(BUP)—Housewife Stella Komorek went free today after confessing her infant son was killed when she accidentally dropped him on the floor and her kidnap story was a hoax to "spare my husband grief."

Police found the blanket-wrapped body of six-month-old Stephen Komorek, tied in a feed bag, in a creek. Poses had searched 36 hours for a "hall stranger" she said had run off with her baby. At first plump Mrs. Komorek, 27, stuck for six hours to her account that the child had been kidnapped from his bassinet. Her husband, Henry, 34, led his sobbing wife home when authorities ruled the child was killed accidentally in the fall from her arms during a feeding and had not drowned. He "will stick by" her. It's all right, honey," he told her. "I put him on the table, then I went down to the cellar and got a feed bag," she said. "I wrapped the baby up in his little blanket and put him in the bag. I took him down to the creek."

Clark asked whether she threw the baby into the water. "No, no, no I placed him in it."

Thanking you one and all.

S. PARSONS,
Mayor.

Truman Ponders Coal Strike Move

Steel Industry Peace Near But Coal Is Still Thorny

By United Press
The U.S. steel strike neared complete settlement today and government officials are expected to decide by Wednesday whether President Truman should take action to end the coal walkout.

Republic Steel Corp. and Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., third and fourth largest in the industry, are reported almost ready to settle on a state mental hospital today after she said that "voices in my head" drove her to slash the throats of her four young children. The children were expected to recover. Three physicians questioned Mrs.

Measwell, President John L. Lewis of the striking United Mine Workers met in Chicago with his 200-man policy committee. It appeared he had failed in his attempt to drive a wedge between Illinois-Indiana mine owners and the rest of the industry.

However, it was reported Lewis was putting new pressure on them to make a separate peace. Washington observers believed that China would meet with Lewis Wednesday and decide that day whether to ask President Truman to take action.

TRUMAN THREAT
Truman has said he will invoke the Taft-Hartley law to end the walkout if a national crisis develops. Two other courses also are open to the President. He could make a personal appeal to the UMW to CHEESE is big business for Alberta. Prominent leaders in dairying industry in this province are observing National Cheese Week from Nov. 7 to Nov. 12. Appropriately saluting National Cheese Week here are, from left: L. Suss, sales supervisor P. Burns and Co.; Russell Stanley, general manager Northern Alberta Dairy Pool; D. H. McCallum, dairy commissioner, provincial department of agriculture; Hon. David H. Ure, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, cutting big piece of cheese; M. Baker, general manager Woodland Dairy Co. Ltd.; H. Sissons, produce manager P. Burns and Co., and C. Monteith, branch manager, Kraft Foods Ltd.

National Cheese Week Opens Today in Canadian Cities

The week of November 7 to 12 has been declared National Cheese Week. Canadians have been overlooking a highly nutritious food that other countries have learned to appreciate much more extensively.

The average yearly consumption in Canada is about four pounds as compared with approximately 10 pounds in most European countries. Cheese is a concentrated food. It contains most of the important constituents of the milk from which it was made. Cheese is an economical source of high quality protein. At the usual market prices it is a much cheaper source of protein than meat.

Cheese is an excellent source of calcium and phosphorus, two minerals necessary for the bones and teeth and the maintenance of good health throughout life. Milk and cheese are our two best sources of calcium in the diet. Three ounces of hard cheese contain about the adult daily requirement of calcium.

Cheese is also an excellent source of vitamins. By eating more cheese Canadians would improve the general nutritive value and at the same time increase the variety and palatability of their meals.

Bridge Transplanted

KAPUR, Northern Rhodesia — (CP)—A bridge over which thousands of Londoners have walked was put into use here recently. It is the emergency bridge which spanned the River Thames near County Hall. The bridge was given to the Northern Rhodesia government by Sir Alfred Bell.

Cheese Curing Process Takes Months to End

Before cheese is ready for consumption it must be aged or matured to develop flavor and mellowness. The time required may vary from a minimum of three months to up to two years or even longer. Generally speaking, cheese from three to six months old are described as "mild" or "medium" white cheeses cured for three months or longer are sold as "old" or "well aged."

To The Kitchen! Cheese Muffins Wanted For Supper

This week is National Cheese Week. Canadian homemakers are experimenting with dozens of delicious new cheese recipes, among them cheese muffins. Here is a reliable recipe for the tasty muffins which make wonderful companions for a salad supper.

CHEESE MUFFINS
1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour,
¼ teaspoon salt,
2½ cup grated cheese,
1 egg,
1 cup milk or tomato juice,
2 tablespoons shortening,
melted.
Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add cheese. Beat egg, add milk. Make a depression in flour mixture, pour in egg and milk mixture, then add melted shortening. Stir only enough to combine. Fill greased muffin tins two-thirds full. Sprinkle with additional grated cheese. Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees Fahrenheit, 20 to 25 minutes. Yield: 1 dozen medium muffins.

The organisms contribute to flavor in some extent. However, they also set up the solid condition in the cheese which is as necessary for good keeping quality. The enzymes present in rennet extract play an important part in ripening by breaking down the curd of the curd. This action goes on throughout curing and is hastened by using high temperatures. As these reactions progress the cheese becomes more mellow and more easily digested.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Monday, Nov. 7, 1949
The fat is also changed to some extent during ripening and it is now thought that certain by-products of this change contribute much to the flavor of old cheese. The minimum temperatures for the first 30 days of curing are now specified by Dominion regulations. For the first ten days the temperature must be maintained at not less than 58 degrees F., while for the remainder of this period it must be not less than 45 degrees F. Temperatures much above these levels are seldom used since high or levels often result in the development of off-flavors. During the curing period the cheese must be protected from damage by such things as undesirable moulds, mites, vermin and excessive shrinkage. This is accomplished more readily if the cheese are shell cured. STALING, Lincolnshire, England—(CP)—A six-year-old short-horn heifer gave birth to a bull calf weighing 130 pounds. The average weight at birth is 70 to 80 pounds.

That Four-Minute Mile

Monday mumbblings and whatever became of all that talk about the four-minute mile? Well, the answer is, Oh, the stresser there jammed on their two-yard line and the impact took you really, but the voice of the runner rolled the runner "Come on, you boys, hold steady!"

Calgary's great stand on their own two-yard stripe against the frantic Stampedeers, the diving minutes of that game in Regina Saturday, won grudging admiration, even locally. Belden, Wardman and finally Biggie, the battering ram from Baylor "U" took a crack. (Batters) Matheson and his Stampede inmates, to no avail. Then and there the Cowboys put the smother on the series. Only a four-star upset at Calgary next Friday stands in the way of an eastward trek of the Stampedeers for the second year in a row.

Add morning-after-the-night-before greetings: Two Johnson to "Frenchie" D'Amour, after "sleeping on" D'Amour's great throughout line to wind up the car-slip Saturday night: "Hi ya, Lucky."

But the well-known Johnson grin was in evidence. There was no (well, not much) malice in the greeting.

Pollard Goes On and On

South side boy Johnny (Red) Pollard seemingly goes on and on as one of the continent's top jockeys. Among his winning efforts at Rockingham Park recently were Hickkers ($38.40) and Bernie Moose ($14.00). It's more than 20 years now since the carrot-top, destined to go right to the peak as one of the great Saskatchewan jockeys, the last of the track in the south side Athletic Grounds from his siles and headed south. . . "Our" boy, Danny Scott, reports he was treated like a mother-in-law at that Seena-Calgary Westerns contest at Clarke Stadium Saturday.

ACT Gang Could Use Promoter

Johnny Dutchak, ex-Mable Lee juniors, ex-Flyers, ex-Saskatoon Quakers, and Denny Huddleston, ex-Nelson Leafs, ex-Calgary Stampedeers, frequently get starting assignments on defense for Valleyfield Braves. The first men are in the Quebec league, a hockey circuit that tries vainly to mask its professionalism by calling itself a "senior" league. . . Despite the fact that the ACT gang is anything but a success at the box-office, there's reason to believe it still can be put over locally. However, it might be a good idea for Ted Mairs, "Squib" Williamson, Harry Pollock, George Snowden and their ACT associates to consider hiring a professional promoter to do nothing else but work full time in the interests of the "spiel" for several months prior to the closing of the first year. Otherwise it's far too big a job for a handful of enthusiasts to handle in their spare time.

Mairs touched on this point yesterday, when speaking on the possibility of a second order next year: "There may be a 'spiel' but I won't have anything to do with it unless things are different. This is no job for just two or three men out of a big organization."

Whatever became of the Saskatoon Quakers that EVERYBODY could whip?

Y Toilers, Meteors In Cage Triumphs

Y.M.C.A. Toilers and Waterloo Meteors successfully piled the lid off the Senior Men's Basketball League season by registering victories at Variety Gym Saturday night.

About 400 fans watched Guy C. Webb and the Chabousses of the Y's defeat the Meteors 21 points, per Y.M.C.A. hostesses to a 46-20 win over Sparring Daves in the Mid-West. Meteors scored a convincing 34-10 defeat from Van-der Golden Bears in the nightcap.

Y boys took a commanding 22-12 first half lead and never looked back. Sparring Daves a new entry in the league, improved as the game went along, even though Sparring Daves, 26-16 in the second half.

Mary Polonak was outstanding in a losing cause, netting 15 points, while Denny Gosselin of Edmonton Eskimos' grandson fanned, fired 7.

Meteors posted an almost unmountable first half lead of 29-13, over the Bears, but were hanging on to the lead at the final whistle. The collegemen took charge in the second half and outscored the visitors 27-14.

Ed Lucht led Meteors at the hoop with 10 points, with Dick West with 8. Lucht and Mike Laeban were top point-guards for Variety having 5 and 3 respectively.

One-Two Punch Wins For Royals

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—(AP)—New Westminster's Ken Ullott and Roger Deane combined last night on two quick goals in the second period to start the scoring that defeated Portland 4-2 in a Pacific Coast Hockey League game.

After a scoreless first period, Ullott took a pass from Deane to score at 1:11 of the second period. The seconds later they reversed the positions, with Deane making the puck.

Miss Adile Scores In Gold Cup

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Mrs. Walter M. Jefferson Adile, nee Ted Atkinson, 34-year-old, got up in the last minute to break out into the Gold Cup.

Miss Adile, 34, was the 300,000-dollar Empire City Gold Cup at Jamaica.

A crowd of 30,000 saw Adile win the 35 favorite right at the end of the 15-minute event to win $12,500 to win.

The only filly in the field, the three-year-old daughter of Belmont, Brown Derby winner, won the race by a wide margin.

The filly was clocked in 2:45 for the long autumn season. The 2:45 4-5 set by Styrie three years ago.

Second choice 14, the betting, Adile returned a mutuel of $12.50.

Blue Bombers to Battle Hilltops in West Final

By Hugh Watson
Staff Correspondent

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—It may have been the scenic beauty encountered on the long ride over the Rockies. Or it may have been the rainy coast air.

In any event Edmonton Leafs, who were the 35 favorite right at the end of the 15-minute event to win $12,500 to win.

The only filly in the field, the three-year-old daughter of Belmont, Brown Derby winner, won the race by a wide margin.

The filly was clocked in 2:45 for the long autumn season. The 2:45 4-5 set by Styrie three years ago.

Second choice 14, the betting, Adile returned a mutuel of $12.50.

DEVELOPED AFTER THREE YEARS OF EXTENSIVE TESTS IN CLINICS

IMDRIN has been a closely guarded experimental secret before release for public use. Yes, three years of extensive controlled tests have proved conclusively that IMDRIN works instantly toward fast reduction of pain, heat, and redness. Patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy in these trials often were able to resume comfortable living completely for the first time. Every victim of rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, sciatica, gout, neuralgia, etc., should investigate this new development. Ask for IMDRIN at drug stores. Truly IMDRIN is today's big proprietary success.

I can move about without pain and enjoy life once again. Surely the thousands of sufferers like me who are seeking relief from the pains of arthritis should be quick to learn about the latest fast-acting preparation IMDRIN contains. It surely goes to work fast and gives relief."

Graciously yours,

I was like a one-armed person. Then I took IMDRIN. Now I can do my work. I suffer no more pain. No one can realize the fast relief it gives a person that suffers like I did. IMDRIN is worth hundreds of dollars to me."

A. C. C.

WHERE RHEUMATISM STRIKES... AND HOW TO DETECT IT!

Rheumatic and arthritic pain and inflammation can strike the joints in any of the indicated affected areas. One arrow in chart above shows these chronic have many forms and each form has varying symptoms. Rheumatoid arthritis is an infection of the joints which fill with fluid. The pain around them may be red, the joints themselves swollen and painful. Still another form is specific infectious arthritis. All these various forms of arthritis and rheumatism are accompanied by pain; very often swelling and loss of function of the joints. Clinical test patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy, some of whom had suffered hopelessly for as long as twenty years, were able to resume more happy, active living once the pain subsided and their confidence grew. In cases where the joints were swollen, IMDRIN, working instantly, eased that rapidly. These patients, many of whom had given up hope, were able to come again resume comfortable living. It is true that responses to IMDRIN varied occasionally and your own experience may or may not coincide with that of patients tested. But IMDRIN today offers you new hope. IMDRIN, with its modern ingredients, may give you the same blessed successful results. Get IMDRIN today!

Here's Game Hand Easy To Misplay

By William E. McKenney

The fact that so many people in bridge may be the reason why they like to see celebrities how they play their game. I asked David Ross, who has been in radio for years, whether it was his original ambition to be a writer or a radio announcer. He said "I was away back in 1926 that I got my start in radio. I had hoped to become a writer. But one day I was in the original Gimlet Station, WJZP, there was a terrific thunderstorm going on outside, and the orchestra which was supposed to play did not show up. So they asked me to take a volume of Edgar Allan Poe and start reading."

This Hunter Just Has All the Luck

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(AP) Warren H. Mitchell has been hunting ducks for 28 years. But he never experienced an hour quite like last Saturday.

Here's what Mitchell says happened within the space of six hours on Saturday.

At 11 a.m. he lost one of his best winged friends.

At 3:15 p.m. he shot a pheasant.

At 3:45 he acquired another pheasant when his remaining seven birds, including the bird shot by some other hunter.

At 4:30 Mitchell tripped and sprained his ankle.

Noisy Trio Up In Court

Three city youths appeared in city police court today on charges of causing disturbances. They are Warren Kellogg, 18, 118 Street; Bill Cuddy and Delmar D. Meade, no fixed address.

Kellogg is in company with two juveniles, was accused of starting a riot on Saturday night. On a charge of illegal possession of a gun, Kellogg was fined $100 without plea for a week.

Cuddy was arrested after shooting and wounding a man on the corner of 101 Street and 102 Avenue last Saturday night. He was fined $100 and $250 for the shooting of a child, said Magistrate A. J. Miller.

Meade was picked up Saturday night after causing a commotion in a downtown restaurant. He was fined $100 and $250 for the shooting of a child, said Magistrate A. J. Miller.

Police Seek Missing Man And His Money

Edmonton police are seeking a Washburn man who disappeared last night.

He is John Robert McLean, 43, who came to Edmonton last Monday night on a business trip. He was carrying a large sum of money and has been missing since.

Police discovered his panel delivery truck abandoned in a department parking lot on Saturday.

McLean is described as five-feet, about 160 pounds, with red hair, blue eyes, and a mustache. He is wearing a red and black checkered flannel shirt and khaki trousers.

Two Still At Large From Jail In 'Hail Medicine' Hat, Nov. 7.—(UPI)

Two escapees from jail here, Ron Christensen and Reg Emery, are still at large. They broke out Thursday night while being held in connection with a car theft in Regina.

BCMP said the men apparently spent Friday in a gravel pit near a truck and eluded a police road block on Saturday.

Drama Group Meets Wednesday

Edmonton's drama group, the ABC Players, will hold a business meeting and play reading in the Club room at the Corona hotel Wednesday at 8 p.m.

New script by Peter Greaves, author of the group's recent presentation "Quiet Evening" will be available for reading.

If broadcasting, he has been the announcer on practically every kind of program except a bridge program. The success of a game announcer is in his ability to see the story in today's hand.

East cashed the king and jack of diamonds and shifted to the queen of spades. Dummy won the trick. Declarer cashed the king of hearts, and now he had to lose two trump tricks.

If you missed the story, he said, he would like to find all the trumps in one hand. But it was not. It was played wrong. Declarer should lead a small heart. Then, so zatter who held the four hearts, declarer would lose only one trump trick, making the game.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Nov. 7.—(UPI)—Premier Klement Gottwald announced today that Czechoslovakia was giving uranium to the Soviet Union.

U.S. To Stay In Japan After Occupation End

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The United States intends to keep troops in Japan for many years after the end of all occupation.

Diplomatic authorities said decision has been reached by officials who, in trying to draw up a Japanese peace treaty, faced this tough problem:

How can Japan be given full independence while still keeping protection against a growing Communist menace in Asia?

With decision on this and other tough matters, state department officials have reached the final stage in shaping a treaty of peace.

The next step must be consultation with Britain and other countries. State Secretary Acheson will send Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain in Paris this week to discuss such matters.

Recent provisions of the pact are now drafted for call.

An end to the allied occupation as soon as the treaty is ratified.

Surround by occupation forces of powers of governing the country, and subsequent to about six months the Japanese would control all the country's affairs.

Creation of (a) industrial capacity to build a war machine and (b) right to create an army loyal to the Japanese constitution.

Clear-up of reparations question by disposition of Japanese assets in allied and neutral countries.

Demarcation of territories from Japan in accordance with the Cairo agreement, as well as support of Japanese rights over Pacific mandate islands.

Guarantees of basic civil rights, including principles such as free elections.

Commitments on Japanese disarmament and international organizations and treaties. It seems likely Japanese will be required to disarm almost at all times.

With principal allies, to stand for membership in the UN and otherwise establish itself in world affairs.

State department officials hope to begin work on the treaty in December and other powers about Dec. 1.

Robber Dies At Holdup

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Greer Gaultin Catalano Saturday night paid off—with gunfire—three robbers who had taken into the holdup at holding up his small store. He blazed away when the three put up appearance.

One man, identified as Charles Parice, was killed instantly. Another, Thomas Leticia, was shot through the head and shoulder. The third, Harold Smith, suffered a leg wound.

Smith managed to escape but was arrested later when he appeared at hospital for treatment. Leticia is in critical condition.

Federal Control Over Trucking Strongly Opposed

Alberta Motor Transport Association will protest proposals to regulate by federal order the motor truck industry in Alberta.

Jack Taylor, secretary-manager of the association, said in a brief of the AMTA to the Royal Commission on Transportation, "The fact that federal control of use of taxing powers will increase the cost of truck-delivered goods to the consumer."

The brief pleads also for removal of the ban on trucking in national parks.

Boy Buried Alive, Dies

LANCASTER, O., Nov. 7.—(AP)—David Spung, 13, died today because of a bad fall from a tree.

A six-year-old boy, trapped with him in the bottom of an eight-foot deep open sewer ditch, was saved by the frantic digging of 13-year-old Edward C. Lehto, who was expected a second cave-in.

The boys were playing in a ditch off the main highway when a ditch wall craved in.

Mystery Witness Causes Delay In Murder Trial

WINNIPEG, Nov. 7.—(UPI)—The preliminary hearing of William Lusk, 21, on a murder charge, was adjourned until Thursday when a "Mr. X"—an unidentified Crown witness—failed to appear.

Police were unable to locate the missing witness who started causing adjournment until today by his failure to appear.

Lusk is charged with the slaying of a woman, Mrs. Doris Lusk, 30, whose body was found in her ramble house in North Winnipeg Sept. 13.

Penny-Pinching Is Theft Charge

An alleged penny-pincher was "pinned" by city police Sunday after charged with the theft of a car.

Emil Drivens of 10518-10 Street was arrested after his room, a small room in the Alberta Government Telephone net surplus of $1,987,888.

Drivens was accused also of entering another room in the house and stealing $70 in cash from Emil Chirka.
